

CONGRATULATIONS!

Forty-three Abington High School seniors have qualified for the prestigious John and Abigail Adams Scholarship. The Adams Scholarship provides a tuition waiver for four years of undergraduate education at Massachusetts state colleges and universities for students who are accepted. Massachusetts public high school students automatically qualify for the scholarship when they:

- (1) score at the Advanced performance level on one of the three high school state assessment tests in ELA, Mathematics, or STE (Biology, Chemistry, Introductory Physics, or Technology/Engineering);
- (2) and score at the Proficient level or higher on the remaining two high school state assessment tests;
- (3) and have combined scores from the three tests that place them in the top 25 percent of students in the graduating class in their district.

AHS students recognized as potential scholarship recipients are Arianna Akusis, Rachel Barrett, Laura Bartlett, Lyla Blanchard, Abigail Boidi, Lily Bonner, Connor Buckley, Mackenzie Cahill, Emily Coulosey, Andre Da Silva, Neeko DiMascio, Erin Doherty, Colin Dunlop, Aidan Fisher, James Foley, Kathryn Genest, Nicholas Graf, Brendon Grafton, Aaron Johnson, Abigail Joyce, Leah Kinniburgh, Cecilia Lindo, Jordan Little, Matthew Lyons, Aleena Magnasco, Andrew McCluskey, James Mulkern, Owen Needle, Abigail Nordeen, Gracie O'Connell, Isabella O'Connell, Maura Odell, Krish
